

The Indian
Anthropological Society

STATEMENT OF ETHICS

(To be filled in printed, signed and sent as a scanned PDF copy along with the cover letter)
Hereby, I /insert corresponding author's name/ consciously assure that for the manuscript
/insert title/ the following is fulfilled:

1. This material is the author's/authors' original work, which has not been previously published in any form elsewhere.
2. The paper is not currently being submitted for consideration for publication elsewhere.
3. The paper reflects the author's/authors' research and analysis in a truthful and complete manner.
4. The paper properly includes the meaningful contributions of co-authors and co-researchers. Please declare (a) contributions of each of the co-authors by stating the areas (theoretical, methodological, empirical and so on) where they have given inputs, and (b) contributions of each of the co-authors in the sub-sections of the article.
5. The results are appropriately placed in the context of existing literature.
6. All sources used are correctly disclosed (correct citation). Literal copying of text must be indicated by using quotation marks and giving proper references with page numbers.
7. All authors have been personally and actively involved in substantial work leading to the paper and will take public responsibility for its content.
8. Acknowledge people who have helped otherwise during the research but are not the co-authors.

The violation of the Ethical Statement rules may result in severe consequences, including retraction of the article, action according to copyright acts.

To verify originality, your article may be checked by the originality detection software iThenticate or Turnitin.

I agree with the above statements and declare that this submission follows the policies of JIAS as outlined in the Guide for Authors and in the Ethical Statement.

Signature of the corresponding author

Date: